It's that time of year to start thinking about decorating for the holidays. Marilyn Fargo will give you ideas on tablescapes, napkin folding, and fun centerpieces. Carolyn Galloway will use different color combinations, themes, and tips to enrich your Holiday Decorating.

Message from Co-Presidents

Greetings:

We would like to thank all the members involved last meeting with the Candidate Forum. It was a tremendous success and was only possible because of our organization working together. A special thanks goes out to key individuals who made this event possible. Please see the Candidate Forum Recap for all the people acknowledged.

Delores Hurt will speak about the League of Women Voters and their 100 year celebration on Feb 29, 2020 after our Holiday decorating guest speakers.

In correlation with our 45th club anniversary, we are selling totes for $20. On the front panel:
"Mint Hill Women's Club"
Since 1974

will be embroidered in green thread. The tote is a heavy water resistant zippered fabric with side mesh pockets measuring approximately 16" H x 20" L x 4" D. If you are interested in buying a tote please contact Marilyn Fargo at: Maf4designs@msn.com

Our Membership Directories will be available at the December Meeting. This year, please note that we have added a couple of new pages. Not only are we listing our Silent Auction Vendors, but we are now proud to have our directory sponsored by local businesses that we don't tap for our Auction/raffles.

Please consider utilizing these local businesses for your everyday needs. Their contributions provided our club with $400 in revenue. Next year, we would like to expand our reach to the larger community.

Thanks goes out to the businesses who believe in our mission to help our local community.

Candidate Forum Recap

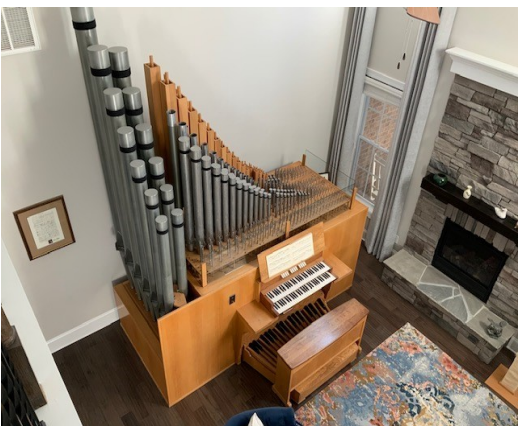

Monday, October 14th, MHWC hosted the Candidate Forum. One Hundred thirty five people attended the event listening to 9 Candidates discuss their positions to various issues facing Mint Hill. Delores Hurt, President of the Women League of Voters was our moderator. Paige McKinney was our timekeeper. Thanks go out to Pam Dalton , Carol Hull , and Marilyn Fargo for the time spent to ensure this event was successful. Questions not addressed at the meeting were posted with appropriate candidate responses on the Facebook site, What's Up Mint Hill/the Original Group. Our thanks goes out to Angela Prince for publishing this for MHWC. I would also like to thank Paul Imirie, photographer with Mint Hill Times, for providing the professional pictures seen here. Thank you to Brian Welch, Town Manager, for setting up the assembly room and ensuring that we had police and fire chief presence. Finally, we made $145 raffling off the Panthers Basket and Centerpiece with the winner for both items being Jane Price.

HOMES FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Sunday Dec 8th and/or Thursday Dec 12th

4pm –8pm.

Several of our fellow Mint Hill Women's Club members will be opening their homes to showcase how each of us decorate and celebrate the holidays. This tour will be open only to club members and their guests. This is also a fundraising activity for the club to support our many worthwhile programs. Tickets will be $20. It will include transportation and tour of homes with refreshments at each stop. Some tours will end with a pipe organ demonstration of holiday music at Ann Carney's home. The full particulars will be explained at the November meeting or you can call Suzanne Maddox at 704-488-5399 or email ningasuzy@yahoo.com.

Service

Honor the Warriors

Once again, MHWC has sponsored the Friday evening Rally Dinner. Thanks to the ladies who provided delicious dishes. Sue Ellen Yancey, Kathleen Schilling, Patti Armes, Marilyn Fargo, Suzanne Maddox, Mary Blinn, Marilyn Folsbee, Deonna Bandos and Andree West volunteered to help with setup, serving and cleanup.

We were 40+ attendees who enjoyed fellowship, laughter, and a few raffle items courtesy of Honor the Warriors.

The veterans were very appreciative of everything we did for them. These are some of the photos taken at the event..

Fall Team News

Wednesday, October 23rd, 11 members were able to enjoy a tour of the JAARS museum and campus. A lovely lunch followed at the Derby Restaurant in Monroe.

Membership

Currently, we are at 95 members with a few outstanding membership dues. We are excited to welcome 19 new members to our organization. This is a tribute to all of us in getting out the word of what our group provides for the community, our fellowship, and enrichment. We all look forward to a banner year ahead of us.

BOOK SWAPPERS Join our eclectic group every other month in a members home to swap your books with each other. This is a fun way to read all types of books and enjoy each other's company. You can also bring magazines, cookbooks to swap, and discuss articles you have read. We are a great group of women and always have a good time. The hostess for that evening provides dessert and beverages. The next meeting is on Dec 2nd, the first Monday evening of the month at 7pm. For more information contact Ginnie Freeburn at gfreeburn@hotmail.com or 704-545-8204

EpicFest is an extraordinary, free literary festival that brings children, teens and families together with authors illustrators and the Library. This year's festival will feature appearances by award-winning authors and illustrators, activities that encourage a love of reading and learning, a musical performance by Eric Litwin, a teen writing workshop and a YA author panel for teens and fans of young adult literature. This event is made possible by presenting sponsor Wells Fargo and additional generous corporations, foundations and individuals....

2nd Annual Mint Hill Pop Up Christmas Shop will be held December 14th from 12:00 pm - 4:00 pm around the Town Hall circle.
